

The Answers to the Asian Vine Snake Study Guide...

- 1.) What are some other names for this snake? Oriental whip snake, Boie's whip snake, or Gunther's whip snake
- 2.) Are they diurnal or nocturnal? Diurnal
- 3.) Where can these snakes be found? Cambodia, China, India, Indonesia, Bangladesh, Bhutan, Laos, Malaysia, Brunei, Burma, Philippines, Singapore, Vietnam, and Thailand
- 4.) What is the scientific name of the Asian vine snake? Ahaetulla prasina
- 5.) These snakes can be found in small groups. True or False. False
- 6.) They prey on what animals? Reptiles and amphibians
- 7.) Is their venom dangerous to humans? No
- 8.) Some of the effects of their venom include... Localized pain, swelling, and redness
- 9.) What type of habitats do vine snakes prefer? Moist and dry forests; shrublands, plantations, pasturelands, rural gardens, and even urban areas
- 10.) Define precocial. Self sufficient
- 11.) Are Asian vine snakes aggressive? Only when threatened
- 12.) What 2 things hunt vine snakes? Birds of prey and humans
- 13.) Define ovoviviparous. Females that birth live young