

The Answers to the Emperor Penguin Study Guide...

- 1.) What is the largest penguin species? The emperor penguin
- 2.) How many emperor penguins are there in the wild, to date? 595,000
- 3.) The tallest penguin ever recorded was how tall? 6-feet
- 4.) An emperor penguin weighs? 99 lbs.
- 5.) How low do the temperatures drop in Antarctica? -140°F
- 6.) When penguins are at sea, they are called a... Raft
- 7.) If they want to move along the ice faster, what do they do? Toboggan
- 8.) How were scientists able to locate 54 penguin colonies? Via poop stains on the ice
- 9.) Once the egg is laid, the male can take breaks and eat. True or False. False
- 10.) How far can an emperor penguin dive? 1,700 feet deep
- 11.) What do these penguins eat? Fish, krill, and squid
- 12.) Which animals hunt emperor penguins? Orcas, leopard seals, giant petrels, and skuas
- 13.) Are emperors monogamous? Explain. Only for a few seasons. Then they part ways and look for another mate.