

The Answers to the Long-Eared Jerboa Study Guide...

- 1.) Where can you find a long-eared jerboa? China and Mongolia
- 2.) What is their scientific name? Euchoreutes naso
- 3.) Are they diurnal or nocturnal? Nocturnal
- 4.) Which animals prey on jerboas? Cats, foxes, snakes, and owls
- 5.) The definition of thermoregulation is? Regulation of body heat
- 6.) How do they keep sand from getting in their nose and ears? They have hair in their ears and a special flap of skin on their nose that keeps the sand out.
- 7.) Long-eared jerboas are sometimes carriers of what disease? Monkey pox
- 8.) What was Britain's 7th Armored Brigade called? The Desert Rats
- 9.) How many pups does a female jerboa birth? Up to 6 pups
- 10.) What is an insectivore? An animal that eats insects and their grubs.
- 11.) How high can they jump? They can jump up to 9.8 feet.
- 12.) How fast can a jerboa hop? Up to 15 mph
- 13.) Do these jerboas hibernate? Yes