

The Answers to the Red Deer Study Guide...

- 1.) Where can the red deer be found? Name just a few places. Europe, the Caucasus Mountains region, Asia Minor, areas of western Asia, Iran, central Asia, and even Africa
- 2.) How much does a red deer weigh? Up to 440 lbs.
- 3.) What are males, females, and newborns called? Males are called harts or stags, females are called hinds, and newborns are called fawns.
- 4.) Which animals prey on these critters? Bears, gray wolves, and mountain lions
- 5.) What are the top 3 deer species, based on size? Moose, elk, and the sambar deer
- 6.) A group of red deer is called... Herd, mob, or gang
- 7.) What do they eat? Grasses, forbs, sedges, and woody growth
- 8.) How old is some artwork on red deer? 40,000 years old
- 9.) Describe the population of a harem of red deer. 1 male and up to 6 females
- 10.) These deer are both crepuscular and nocturnal. True or False. True
- 11.) Do females have antlers? No
- 12.) These deer are monogamous. True or False. False
- 13.) What is the length of an adult red deer? Up to 7 feet