

The Answers to the Sonoran Pronghorn Study Guide...

- 1.) What is the scientific name of the Sonoran pronghorn? Antilocapra americana sonoriensis
- 2.) These animals are preyed on by what creatures? Coyotes, bobcats, golden eagles, and possibly Mexican wolves
- 3.) How many total wild individuals are left? 420
- 4.) Both males and females have horns. True or False. True
- 5.) What kind of stomach do pronghorns have? 4-chambered
- 6.) Are pronghorns herbivores or carnivores? Herbivores
- 7.) How many fawns can a female produce? Up to 2, but usually just 1
- 8.) How fast can a pronghorn run? 60 mph
- 9.) Pronghorns can't jump. True or False. True
- 10.) What are some other names for pronghorns? Prong buck, pronghorn antelope, American antelope, and desert ghost
- 11.) What is the IUCN status of these creatures? Least Concern
- 12.) Why don't fawns emit any smell, after birth? This protects them from predators
- 13.) How tall are pronghorn adults? 36 inches, at the shoulders